

Bilingual Counselor Advocate

Womanspace, a not-for-profit organization that provides services to victims of domestic violence and sexual assault is hiring for a new Bilingual Counselor Advocate. This is a Full Time position to work directly with Spanish speaking clients, including individual/group counseling and community outreach. This position provides advocacy for victims of domestic violence and sexual assault. Hours vary and interested candidates must be willing to work at least 2 nights a week.

Candidate must have strong background in domestic violence/sexual assault, excellent communication and advocacy skills. A Master's degree in Social Work, Counseling or related field is required as well as fluent in speaking and writing in Spanish. Excellent Benefits package including 401K.

Interested candidates should send resumes to Susan Victor jobs@womanspace.org; or Fax to 609-394-5417.