

Development and Public Relations Associate

F/T position available to work directly with Director of Development in key development and public relations to help meet the goals of the development department.

Candidate must have strong background in development and public relations. A bachelor's degree in related field is required as well as knowledge in excel and database administration, preferably Raisers Edge. Candidate must have a strong writing background. Prior non-profit experience preferred but not required. Excellent Benefits package including 401K.

Interested candidates should send resumes to Lauren Nazarian lan@womanspace.org;