The Clothesline Project

Experience The Clothesline Project - a visual protest that bears witness to the impact of power-based violence on our community. Clotheslines are hung with shirts decorated by survivors or those who care about them to reflect personal experiences with sexual violence and domestic violence. The event will feature speeches from leaders in the community followed by a family-friendly fair in the afternoon.

Bloomin' DASI Art Gallery

Come see the original pieces of artwork in this gallery, all created by the clients of DASI. This gallery includes paintings, photographs, poetry, and more, to reflect the stories of personal growth, resilience, and courage. Select artwork will be available for purchase, with all proceeds going to the artist of each work. Please note, in order for the artists to receive proceeds without additional processing fees, cash or check is strongly preferred.
