Center For Family Services is seeking a professional, culturally sensitive individual for the Trauma Recovery Center to conduct clinical intakes, individual and group psychotherapy, and care coordination using evidence-based practices for survivors of crime.

The Trauma Recovery Center works within a trauma-informed, hope-centered framework that creates an environment whose daily practices promote the well-being of both staff and those we serve.

Location: Camden City. Hybrid work environment (in person, telehealth, or community setting).

Job Type/Status: Counselor Full Time, Salary.

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Conduct clinical intakes and counseling using a trauma-informed approach and identify service needs.
- Develop a service plan that is hope-centered and includes long-term goals, short-term objectives, and interventions.
- Facilitate care coordination of services among various agencies and link clients to needed services.
- Promote and demonstrate cultural humility in client care and staff interactions that respond respectfully to the strengths and skills of diverse ethnicities and cultures, languages, socio-economic classes, disabilities, religions, genders, sexual orientation, and other diversity-related factors.
- Participate in clinical supervision in accordance with the guidelines of their professional organization.
- Participate in multi-disciplinary team meetings, case conference meetings, agency-wide meetings, and conferences.
- Attend trainings that may include TF-CBT, Cognitive Processing Therapy, Motivational Interviewing, Seeking Safety, and other trauma-specific interventions.
- May provide presentations or workshops to community partners.
- Complete documentation and the Level of Service as identified in the grant.
- Perform other duties as assigned.

Requirements:

- MSW or MA in social work, counseling, or a related field.
- NJ License required: LCSW, LPC, LMFT or LSW, LAC, MFT.
- Knowledge in trauma informed care and adverse childhood experiences.
- Experience providing individual and group counseling.
- Work in a hybrid environment and some evenings.
- Bilingual in Spanish is preferred.
- Valid driver's license, insurance, and clean driving record.
