

In collaboration with the North Bergen Public Library

Candlelight Vigil

Thursday, April 24th, 2025 - 6pm to 7:30pm
(doors open at 5:30pm)

Join Hudson SPEAKS for a Candlelight Vigil to honor survivors and those lost to sexual violence.

Featured Musical Performance:

Keilana is a bi-coastal Grammy-nominated vocalist, songwriter, and advocate from Hawaii, making waves across the nation. Using her music to uplift indigenous communities, women, and global connection she aspires to help create a better world through advocacy of identity and safety through music. Beyond performing worldwide, she mentors and advocates for mental health and domestic violence as a board member of Women Speaking Out, blending artistry with healing and empowerment. For more information, visit: www.keilanamusic.com

Location of event:

North Bergen Public Library
- Kennedy Branch -
1231 John F. Kennedy Blvd.
North Bergen, NJ 07047
(free parking in library garage)

Scan to RSVP

For more information, contact:

Maria Elaine Evia

201-795-8375 x5269

maria.evia@carepointhealth.org

Bhavya Chaudhary

201-795-8375 x8559

bhavya.chaudhary@carepointhealth.org